You need to sign up with the broker, in most cases if you are in the USA the link would not work but if you have a passport that is not from Canada, or USA you will be able to sign up directly with the broker. If you are an resident of the banned countries just contact us directly and we have a solution for this.

If you already have an account with the broker please just log in on this step

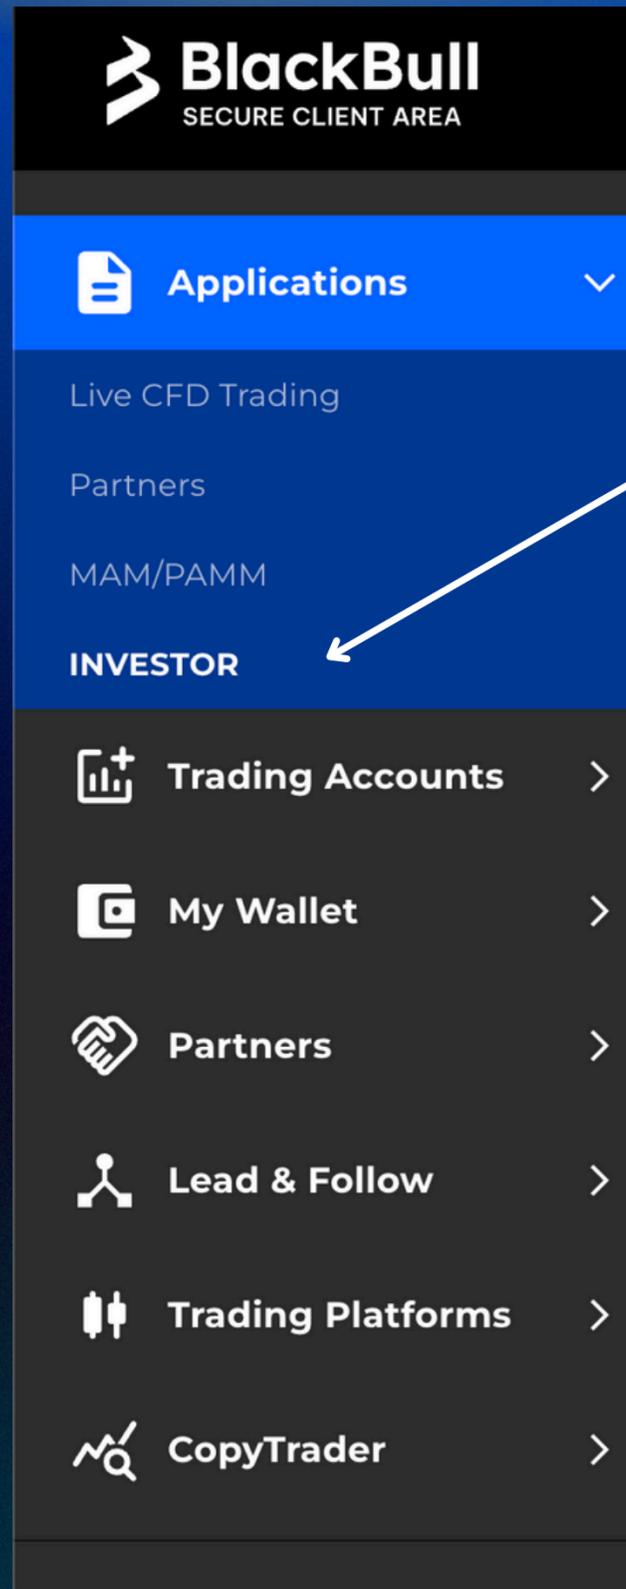

- <https://blackbull.com/en/live-account/?ib=2100120411>

Once you sign up you will need to do two more steps, one is verify your email, then log in to the broker again and verify your account with proof of address and proof of identity ensure the uploaded bank statement is a pdf and not screenshot and your proof of identity is a passport.

When you are first signing up they will ask you what type of real or live account you want to create and platform none of that is important so just select anything to get through the process as you wont be trading now will that specific account be used. So select whatever options
